

AmericaTheBeautiful.com Chooses Custer Country, MT as part of the See America Tour to Celebrate and Film the People and Places of America!

Waynesville, NC, June 9, 2008:

After dozens of submissions by communities across these United States of America – AmericaTheBeautiful.com has elected to feature Custer Country, MT in the 2008 See America Tour. “Custer Country’s upcoming re-enactments and amazing people are a perfect example of America’s Pride, Passion, Promise and Patriotism for this great country” states Peter Smith. “We are looking forward to capturing the region’s true American Spirit on Video”.

AmericaTheBeautiful.com is taking a film crew across the roads of America in search of powerful stories of patriotism and love of this great land. The focus is on the heartwarming communities, filled with great people, amazing photographic sites, and messages of patriotism, pride, passion and promise for America. AmericaTheBeautiful.com is dedicated to inspiring the hearts of all Americans with videos, photographic imagery, writings and music to tell the story of America.

In this stressful world of the diminishing dollar value, rising gas prices, falling housing values, and escalating international threats, many are easily distracted by the day-to-day madness of the world. Americans often overlook the beauties of this great country and the freedoms that they enjoy. The goal at AmericaTheBeautiful.com and The See America Tour is to film the stories of a great people in communities across America amidst an amazing landscape. The videos will focus on America’s people who, live, work and grow this diverse culture with freedom as the core ideal. The results will be a series which shows that patriotism is alive and well in America.

The See America Tour will continue with this feature on Custer Country in June of 2008 with the annual re-enactments of Custer’s Last Stand, the Dr. Joe Medicine Crow Awards ceremony and other features throughout this beautiful part of America. The Tour will result in a broadcast-quality video series suitable for cable and network distribution. Additionally, the series, See America, will be available through web TV and other retail outlets. AmericaTheBeautiful.com currently has an amazing DVD called “The Spirit of America” that is available nationwide at Sam’s Clubs and other retail outlets.

About AmericaTheBeautiful.com: Peter F. Smith, President and founder of AmericaTheBeautiful.com, spent 20 years in the convention industry producing corporate meetings for Fortune 500 companies, associations and medium size businesses. In the wake of the events of September 11, many of his clients asked him to produce a video to pay tribute to those who died on that day, or to feature our country’s most patriotic songs and honor those in the military who had fought to preserve the freedoms we enjoy every day. He was surprised to find that with all of the amazing video available, nothing was available to pay tribute to our nation’s most cherished patriotic music. He made a heart-felt commitment to produce “The Spirit of America – DVD” a collection of classic Americana music and video to celebrate the United States of America as the greatest country in the world. Additionally, Peter has created a strong web presence, AmericaTheBeautiful.com, which is dedicated to inspiring the hearts of all Americans with videos, photographic imagery, music and gifts.
