

Story available at <http://www.billingsgazette.net/articles/2006/10/15/news/business/80-achievers.txt>

Published on Sunday, October 15, 2006.
Last modified on 10/15/2006 at 12:20 am

Achievers

Sunday, October 15, 2006

Custer Country, the organization that promotes tourism in southeastern Montana, elected Rose Emily Longan of Roundup as president at its recent annual meeting in Forsyth. Longan replaces Sandy Watts of the 7th Ranch RV Camp in Garryowen, who chose not to seek re-election after serving as president for nearly two years. Watts remains on the executive board.

Longan is active in the Roundup Chamber of Commerce and serves on the Musselshell County Housing Authority, the Roundup Arts & Heritage Center and the Watershed Advisory Committee.

Shaun Combs, manager of the Billings Ramada Inn, has been elected vice president of Custer Country; Kim Trangmoe, executive director of the Glendive Chamber of Commerce, will serve as secretary; and Cathy Fleming of the First State Bank of Forsyth was re-elected treasurer. New members to the board of directors include Lisa Piedrowski of the Wibaux County Museum in Wibaux, and Terry Jeffers of the Jailhouse Gallery in Hardin.

Custer Country recently selected Cynroc Business Development, Inc. of Billings to handle consumer advertising, marketing and Web site design and maintenance, and Absaroka Beartooth Group of Ballantine as its public-relations firm.

Working with Travel Montana, Custer Country serves 13 counties: Big Horn, Carter, Custer, Dawson, Fallon, Golden Valley, Musselshell, Powder River, Prairie, Rosebud, Treasure, Wibaux and Yellowstone, as well as the Crow and Northern Cheyenne Reservations.