THE TYPERIDER

Review & Trip Planner

The TypeRider website is up and running! We hope you make TypeRider your go-to site for planning the perfect trip to Montana and Wyoming. This website is about real people – couples, families, and friends – who've had unique experiences on the roads and in the cities, on the water and in the saddle as they spent 2-5 days in this amazing area of the country. Bookmark this website, watch for what's new, and let us hear from you. Please visit our website at www.thetyperider.com

CUSTER COUNTRY IN FOCUS

It's November and that means Thanksgiving and the opportunity to give thanks for everything we have. We also need to remember that lots of folks aren't as lucky, whether they live down the street from you or on the other side of the world. Keeping this in mind, I urge all of you to contribute what you can to a local food bank, shelter or thrift store. Donations to these organizations can make a huge difference in someone's life.

November also marks the time of year when many communities have craft fairs. It's a lot of fun to attend these events and see some of the original arts and crafts the creative folks in Custer Country have to sell. It's a great opportunity to own a unique piece of art to keep or to send to your out-of-state friends or relatives. Check out the calendar on our website at www.CusterCountry.com to find a craft show or bazaar in the

THE GETAWAY

A great way to get away this month would be to attend a theatrical performance. Billings boasts the Billings Studio Theater (<http://www.billingsstudiotheatre.com/>), the Alberta Bair Theater (<http://www.albertabairtheater.org/>) and the Venture Theater (<http://www.venturetheatre.org/>) which all present live comedies, dramas and musicals. Check their websites for details on what each is offering.

In addition, Rocky Mountain College and MSU Billings also have drama departments that feature live performances occasionally. And don't forget the community colleges in Miles City, Glendive, Lame Deer and Crow Agency. Check their schedules for upcoming events.

Get out, have dinner in one of our region's great restaurants and enjoy an evening of theater in Custer Country.

Have a Happy Thanksgiving. And if you're traveling for the holiday, drive safely.
